

Information for parents about Recreation Centres - Frístund

Frístund is a leisure centre operated in all the town's primary schools and is open to all children in grades 1-4.

Frístund is an optional offer where children stay and play and engage in creative activities under the care of staff after school hours.

Opening hours

Frístund is open from the end of school hours to 5pm. Parents may decide which days to avail themselves of the service and the time spent can vary between days. Staying hours can be to 2pm, 3pm, 4pm or 5pm. Frístund is open on all days that primary schools are open and during school hours of 3 of 5 teacher preparation work days. They are open on all working days around Christmas and Easter but closed on 23 December (Þorláksmessa), Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve. Frístund is closed during the school's winter breaks and they are closed on the first day of school each year. There is a special registration for Christmas and Easter openings as well as extra fee.

How much does it cost?

Attendance and food fees are collected in advance at the beginning of each month. Further information on the price list may be found here:
